

Amendments in the UoC under Practitioners Domain and Public Domain:

1. The Institutions under UoC with the university shall keep a non-refundable free Deposit amount of Rs. 15,000 for the courses of public domain which would be a onetime payment to USCE and this amount will be non-refunded to the institute at the time of final withdrawal from the UoC. In the same manner for the courses of practitioners' domain, the non-refundable Deposit amount shall be Rs. 25,000 which would be a onetime payment to USCE and this amount will be non-refunded to the institute at the time of final withdrawal from the UoC. Further the institutes conducting courses both in Public & practitioner's domain can conduct both type of courses by paying the deposit of Rs 25,000.
2. Issue of final certificate: The final certificate will be issued by USCE duly signed by the Program Director and to be signed by the Head of the Institute where the program is being conducted. The USCE will issue the certificate to the Institute after receiving the list of participants, prescribed fee (30% of course fee per candidate) and certified copy of provisional certificate issued by the Head of the Institute after the completion of the program.